Shady Lane Village November newsletter

So off we go to Tarpon Springs. Most people that heard of Tarpon Springs know it for the Sponge Docks

But have you ever heard of the Weeping Icon of Saint Nicholas

Located in the Saint Nicholas Orthodox Cathedral, also known for annual Epiphany Celebration. Allegedly this painting shed tears for no logical reason. A cleaning woman first noticed this in 1970. Moist drops were noticed around the eyes even though the painting was enclosed in glass. These tears continued to develop from time to time. Greek Orthodox Archdiocese viewed it as an apparent miracle. The painting continued to weep until Dec 1973.

So, Tarpon Springs was named by Mary Ormand in 1879 She saw fish leaping and gave the town name Tarpon Springs although most likely fish were mullet not Tarpon. Known for its sponges it brought in many divers from Greece.

Tarpon Springs even has a ghost tour offering eerie history and exploring haunted areas. I haven't done that one yet but did tour a graveyard at night in Tarpon.

So, if you are a fan of Greek food and festivities head to Tarpon Springs

Hello All -Here is the article with the QR code for joining the FaceBook page.

Neighbors Wanted
(No Experience Necessary)

It's 7:00 p.m. Do you know where your neighbors are this evening?

If you guessed "probably on the porch, probably talking about the weather, possibly holding a casserole" — you're closer than you think. Shady Lane Village is full of good people doing good things, and it's time more of us found out about it.

Here's the thing about community: it doesn't happen by accident. Our HOA Board and Activity Committee put a lot of work into planning coffee socials, dance parties, craft classes, and the occasional golf cart parade — but none of that matters if nobody shows up to enjoy it.

We're not asking you to run anything (unless that's your love language — no judgment). Just show up. Wave at the folks a few sidewalks down. Join a craft class. Pull up a chair for a round of "Got It," because rumor has it the stakes have gotten alarmingly competitive. Or just wander by the pool table and listen in on the fun — no commitment required. Stop by the clubhouse and actually read the newsletter instead of tucking them under your arm with the electric bill.

That's where our HOA Facebook page comes in. It's where the Board and Activity Committee post the who, what, and when, so nobody has to guess whether something's happening today or next Tuesday. Scan the QR code below and request to join.

So here's your challenge this week: pick one thing off the calendar — just one — and go. Chairs are provided. Bring your curiosity, bring a friend, bring your best "so what's new with you" small talk.

Scan to join the Shady Lane Village HOA Facebook page — your one-stop shop for what's happening, when, and whether there'll be snacks.

See you out there.

Community Recap

September's "Got It!" Event Was a Resounding Success!

Our September "Got It!" event at Shady Lane Village brought out one of our biggest crowds yet! Residents and neighbors gathered for a fantastic evening of lively competition, resulting in some great prize pots and plenty of big smiles.

A huge congratulations goes out to all of our event winners who took home a share of the pots!

Thank you to everyone who attended, supported the event, and helped make it such a memorable night for our Shady Lane Village community. Events like these are what make our neighborhood such a vibrant and fun place to live. Keep an eye out for details on upcoming village gatherings and activities!

Community Corner

Looking Back at Our Recent Festivities

What a special night we recently shared in the community! A massive thank you goes out to everyone who came out to make it such a memorable evening filled with laughter, happy tears, and plenty of dancing.

Special highlights and shout-outs from the event:

DJ Hoof: Thank you for being such a sweet man and keeping everyone smiling and dancing all night long!

Our Dedicated Organizers: Huge appreciation to Cathy Docker and Dawn Lovejoy for embracing those sudden "I have an idea" moments, alongside the support of family members Mick and Sharon Jones and husband Rick Bennett.

Helpers & Cleanup Crew: Special thanks to Mary Beth Riendeau, Deborah Tracey, and everyone who pitched in to help clean up after the festivities wound down.

Thank you once again to our wonderful community for making Shady Lane Village such a vibrant and joyful place to call home!
